

News You Can Use BWC Board of Directors

As a result of Ohio House Bill 100, the Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation created the Board of Directors. The board replaces the Workers' Compensation Oversight Commission and is composed of 11 members. All 11 members have full voting rights.

The Board of Directors is an independent body of fiduciaries that provides greater professional expertise to guide policy and guarantee sound decision making. The board also establishes increased accountability within Ohio's workers' compensation system by inspecting BWC's policies and processes, and providing the BWC Administrator with greater input and guidance.

The Board of Directors is composed of 11 members who represent the interests of Ohio workers and employers as well as the general public. The board member representation is as follows:

- Three members represent Employers
 - One for self-insuring employers
 - One for employers with more than 100 employees
 - One for employers with fewer than 100 employees
- Two members represent Employee Organizations
- One member represents Employees
- One member represent the Public
- Two members are Investment and Securities Experts (and must be Ohio residents)
- One member is a Certified Public Accountant
- One member is an Actuary

The board has three committees: an actuarial, audit and investment committee. Committees usually meet the day before the full board meets.

The board meets at least 12 times a year and holds Public Forums where employers and employees are welcome to attend. The schedule of meetings is available at www.ohiobwc.com. We encourage employers to take the opportunity to attend these Forums and voice your interests or concerns to the board.
