March 2011

2011 Ohio Safety Congress & Expo

The Ohio Safety Congress & Expo is one of the largest occupational safety and health events in the Midwest. The 2011 event is scheduled for March 29 to March 31 at the Greater Columbus Convention Center. In addition to two keynote speakers, the Ohio Safety Congress & Expo offers more than 150 educational sessions on topics such as safety program development, emergency planning, cost-cutting safety strategies, construction safety, injury management and ergonomics. For more information and to register for this event visit www.ohiobwc.com.

The 2011 Ohio Safety Congress & Expo offers two keynote speakers. Dr. John Howard will be speaking on Wednesday, March 30th. Dr. Howard is Director of the National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH), a federal agency that is the nation's leading source for work-related illness and injury research. David E. Rife will be speaking on Thursday, March 31st. He is the oldest of the fourth generation of family members who own and operate White Castle, the nation's first fast food hamburger chain.

Be sure to register for this event at www.ohiobwc.com.

Did you Know... Since July 2010 our RNs have reviewed over 10,000 claims to determine if the drug use in the claim is appropriate and claim related. We have identified over 2200 claims and requested a BWC drug review. The potential savings in medication costs for the claims that the BWC has concurred with us on has reached almost 3 million!
